truth in love is compassionate concern. If you cannot speak truth in a loving way, then it is not true. It is only from a position of love that you can speak the truth and seek the good of the person to whom you speak it. True truth is loving, and real love is truthful.

What's More Important: Truth or Love? - Redeeming God

Speaking the truth in love is not as much about having a gentle demeanor as it is about the way truth and love go hand-in-hand. Because we love one another, we must speak the truth. Because we know the truth, we must be people characterized by love (John 13:34-35; 15:1-17). Jesus “came from the Father, full of grace and truth” (John 1:14).

Our parents, Adam and Eve, trusted the suave sales pitch of a lying serpent more than the commands of their own Parent, God Himself. We, as God's called-out ones, dare not emulate their sad example, realizing that the only source of truth is God Almighty (Hebrews 6:17-18), who cannot lie. If we abandon God's truth, we are asking Satan to guide us.

For the Love of the Truth

The grace of love of the truth is offered us along with every new presentment of truth; if we are too indolent to examine whether it be truth, we are rejecting the love of the truth. This is a worse thing than not accepting the truth itself: if they had only aspired to know what was the truth they would have been saved, even if, in fact, they had been in error.
